

Price list for trademark registrations 2021

A trademark can be registered in various areas. You can choose between the Benelux, the European Union or an international trademark registration. An international trademark registration allows you to choose the countries in which you wish to register your trademark.

The trademark is registered for one or more classes. A class indicates the products and/or services for which products and/or services you want to use the mark for. These classes are of great importance, because they determine the scope of protection. A trademark is only protected for the classes for which it is registered. We can, of course, help you choose the right class(es) and formulate an appropriate description of your of an appropriate description of your products/services.

In order to keep things as clear as possible, you can choose from three packages. For each package it is stated what is included and what expansion possibilities you have.
